

SMEJ Call for Associate Editor

Nominations and applications are now being sought for the role of Associate Editor for the Sport Management Education Journal (SMEJ). This journal promotes advancement of the body of knowledge in pedagogy as it relates to sport management education and disseminates knowledge about sport management courses, curricula, and teaching.

Appointment to the role of Associate Editor will take effect at the conclusion of the next NASSM conference in June 2018. Responsibilities of the Associate Editor include assisting the Editor with all aspects of the journal's production and ensuring consistent implementation of editorial policies and procedures. The Associate Editor will be chosen by the NASSM Executive Council to serve a 3-year term before moving into the Editor position.

Qualifications:

1. Significant scholarly contributions to the field of Sport Management.
2. Extensive reputation reviewing manuscripts for publication and service as an editorial board member of a sport management-related journal.
3. Demonstrated administrative skills, capacity to handle a demanding workload and meet deadlines, and ability to work constructively with authors, reviewers, and the Editor.
4. A professional member of NASSM.
5. Familiarity with online submission and review systems.

Nominees may self-select and should send application materials to the current SMEJ Associate Editor, Robin Hardin at robh@utk.edu by September 1, 2017. Applicants should provide a current copy of your CV and a letter that: 1) expresses why you are interested in the position of Associate Editor, 2) highlights your qualifications, and 3) provides a vision for furthering the mission and goals of the journal.

For further information, please contact Robin Hardin.
