

CALL FOR EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBERS
Sport Management Education Journal

The following is a CALL FOR EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBERS for the Sport Management Education Journal (SMEJ), a refereed publication of the North American Society for Sport Management (NASSM). SMEJ promotes advancement of the body of knowledge in pedagogy as it relates to sport management education and disseminates knowledge about sport management courses, curricula, and teaching. This established semiannual journal addresses a range of issues concerning graduate and undergraduate education in sport management. Topics of interest include curriculum development, accreditation, employment competencies, effective teaching methods, experiential learning, online learning, and issues and trends in sport management education.

Editorial Board members serve a three-year term that starts on January 1. Primary responsibilities of board members are to work with the Editor, Associate Editor, and Section Editors to review assigned manuscripts within time limits specified and provide input on the implementation and modification of the journal's policies and procedures. The annual SMEJ Editorial Board meeting is held at the NASSM Conference each year, and all Editorial Board members are expected to attend.

If you are interested in serving as member of the SMEJ Editorial Board, please provide a letter of interest and an abbreviated (2-page) CV that includes: 1) contact information, 2) relevant scholarship, and 3) experience as an ad hoc reviewer and/or service to other editorial boards. Send materials to the SMEJ Editor by November 20, 2016.

Thank you for your interest in the Sport Management Education Journal.
